Secret Cities reveals the secrets and histories hidden in three iconic European landmarks: Rome's St. Peter's Basilica, the Sacré Coeur in Paris and London's underground megastructures.

Rome: Saint Peter's Basilica

Saint Peter's Basilica in Rome is the largest architectural design of its time and one of the most visited monuments in the world. With a capacity of 60,000 people, the Basilica is four times larger than Notre Dame in Paris and, to this day, remains among Christianity's holiest places. Catholic tradition holds that the Basilica is built upon the burial site of Saint Peter, chief among Jesus' disciples and the first Bishop of Rome.

The Basilica's expansive and massive construction took more than a century to complete and, for centuries, it stood as the largest Christian church in the world. The Protestant Reformation, led by Martin Luther, was partially born from the premise that the construction of St. Peter's Basilica was a symbol of the papacy's delusions of grandeur. Pictured above is St. Peter's Throne with Holy Spirti Dove in stained glass by Bernini in the 1600s.

Paris: The Sacré Coeur

In 1870 war broke out between France and Germany and France was defeated and partially occupied by German troops. Two Parisan Catholics believed that France's loss was due to spiritual shortcomings and vowed to build a church dedicated to the Sacred Heart "as reparation" (i.e. as penance for infidelity and sin). They held that the misfortunes of France had spiritual rather than political causes.

Secret Cities

Every year, as the result of their efforts, the Sacré Coeur welcomes more than eleven million visitors. It is the most visited place in Paris after Notre-Dame. With its gigantic, rounded roof and its amazing bell (at 19 tons, the biggest in France), this mega structure is second only to the Eiffel Tower as the city's highest point.

Construction began in 1875 and, for almost half a century, seven architects combined to overcome the challenges of completion. Pictured on the cover is the mosaic ceiling inside the Sacré Coeur.

London: The Underground Megastructures

Throughout centuries, London has become one of the world's greatest cities, but perhaps its greatest architectural achievements are hidden from view. London's history has always been tied to its underground. During the 19th century, dozens of subway tunnels were built, shoring miles of railways beneath thousands of building foundations. In July 1940, the Battle of Britain against the Luftwaffe aircraft spanned more than three months, killing 30,000 British citizens. But this war did not just happen in the sky. In the depths of London citizens took shelter in the intricate maze of hidden underground structures that saved lives daily.

Secret Cities airs on 3-2 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 13th (except 27th) and Sundays at 10:00 a.m. beginning the 20th. On 3-1 it can be seen Mondays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 14th and Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. beginning the 15th.

Laura Ingalls Wilder: Prairie to Page

American Masters "Laura Ingalls Wilder: Prairie to Page" presents an unvarnished look at the unlikely author whose autobiographical fiction helped shape American ideas of the frontier and self-reliance.

A Midwestern farm woman who published her first novel at age 65, Laura Ingalls Wilder transformed her frontier childhood into the best-selling Little House series, a process that involved a little-known collaboration with her daughter Rose. This year marks the 85th anniversary of the publication of Little House on the Prairie (1935).

Starting with Little House in the Big Woods (1932), the books chronicle the adventures of a family struggling to survive on the American frontier and have inspired four generations with the courage and determination of their heroine. Though Wilder's stories emphasized real life and celebrated stoicism, she omitted the grimmer and contradictory details of her personal history: grinding poverty, government assistance, deprivation and the death of her infant son. In recent years, Wilder's depictions of American Indians and Black people have stirred controversy, and made her less appealing to some readers, teachers and librarians.

LtoR: Carrie, Mary and Laura Ingalls, c. 1879, and Laura and Almanzo Wilder, c. 1885

Featuring never-before-published letters, photographs and family artifacts, the film explores the context in which Wilder lived and wrote, as well as the true nature of her personality. The film reveals the truth behind the bestsellers, exploring a rags to riches story that has been embraced by millions of people worldwide.

American Masters "Laura Ingalls Wilder: Prairie to Page" can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 31st at 10:00 p.m. It will be broadcast on 3-1 Thursday, the 31st at 8:30 p.m.

Call the Midwife Holiday Special 2020

This year's Call the Midwife Holiday Special is set in December 1965. Everyone at Nonnatus House is looking forward to a traditional Christmas with all of the trimmings, but things don't go as planned. Poor Sister Monica Joan is rushed to the hospital, while Trixie is incensed to receive a subscription to a Marriage Bureau as a Christmas gift! (And in case you were wondering, a Marriage Bureau is "an establishment which arranges introductions between people who want to get married.") There's also an exciting adventure for Nurse Crane. Meanwhile, former Doctor Who star Peter Davison appears as the Ringmaster of Percival's Circus, which arrives in Poplar bringing new friendships and new experiences.

The Holiday Special will not include Jennifer Kirby (Nurse Valerie Dyer), who sadly has decided to leave the show.

Seasons 10 and 11 of Call the Midwife have already been commissioned and will take the series to 2022 at least. Season 10 premiers early in 2021 with seven new episodes.

Call the Midwife Holiday Special can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 25th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 27th at 6:30 p.m. It will be broadcast on 3-1 Saturday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m.

Charlie Russell's Old West

Charlie Russell's Old West tells the story of the self-taught artist who, by the time he died in 1926, was the highest paid artist in America, and today, celebrated worldwide.

Russell's art depicted a period in Western history when vast herds of buffalo roamed the land, Native Americans practiced traditional ways, and cowboys drove cattle from Texas to the bountiful Montana high plains. It was an era of romance and adventure—and tragedy. Russell chronicled it all.

From the "Big Die Up" during the winter of 1886-87 to the end of the Indian Wars and the destruction of Native Americans' traditional way of life, Russell told the story of a vanishing Wild West from multiple perspectives. He is celebrated as the cowboy artist, but in many respects he became a Native American artist, too. His work is acclaimed not only for its beauty, but its authenticity and record of an iconic American West, treasured by collectors, galleries, museums, cowboys and native, tribal people.

Charlie Russell's Old West airs on 3-2 Friday, the 11th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 13th at 6:00 p.m. On 3-1 it airs Saturday, the 12th at 9:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 22nd at 8:00 p.m.

Ella Wishes You a Swinging Christmas

In Ella Wishes You a Swinging Christmas, enjoy vocal legend Ella Fitzgerald in an evening celebrating her entire iconic album of holiday classics recorded in 1960 at the peak of her interpretive powers.

Ella puts her singular stamp on everything from a sultry vamp like "What Are You Doing New Year's Eve" to the sweet and cozy "The Christmas Song"—twelve happy, winter songs. Even standards like "Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town" sound fresher when they're coming from Ella Fitzgerald.

The hour-long special is hosted by vocalist Vanessa Williams with appearances from Dee Dee Bridgewater, Norm Lewis, Carmen Ruby Floyd, Nova Payton, Dave Detwiler and Morgan James.

Ella Wishes You a Swinging Christmas airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 15th at 7:00 p.m. and Friday, the 18th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 19th at 7:00 p.m.

All is Calm: The Christmas Truce of 1914

The Western Front. Christmas. 1914. Out of the violence comes a silence, then a song. A German soldier steps into No Man's Land Singing "Stille Nacht." Thus begins an extraordinary night of camaraderie, music and peace.

All is Calm: The Christmas Truce of 1914 is an award-winning docu-musical theatre production based on real-life events during World War I. It recreates an astounding moment in history when soldiers from France, England and Germany laid down their arms to celebrate the holiday together by trading carols, sharing food and drink, playing soccer and burying the dead.

This remarkable story is told through the words of the great WWI poets, official war documents, diary entries and letters written by more than thirty WWI soldiers. The historic documents are woven together with iconic WWI songs and European Christmas carols to create a profound retelling of this extraordinary moment in history. Hailed as a "beautiful musical recounting of a World War I cease-fire of gifts, poetry, and melody," by The New York Times, this heartwarming presentation reminds us of the indominability of the holiday spirit—even under the most dire circumstances.

All is Calm: The Christmas Truce of 1914 can be seen on 3-2 Thursday, the 24th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Thursday, the 24th at 8:30 p.m.

Between the Covers with host Ann Bocock takes viewers on a literary odyssey through best-selling works of fiction, nonfiction, and an exciting variety of additional genres.

This new weekly series offers the opportunity to meet your favorite author or introduce you to new voices in the literary world. Bocock interviews nationally recognized authors and we learn about their creative processes, their stories, their struggles and successes during the half-hour program.

Between the Covers will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 1:00 p.m. beginning the 13th.

LIVE FROM LINCOLN CENTER Sondheim Celebration

In a Live From Lincoln Center presentation, the New York Philharmonic celebrates the dazzling orchestral world of Stephen Sondheim in a program hosted by Bernadette Peters, with special guest Tony Award-winner Katrina Lenk (shown).

The 90-minute concert features some of Sondheim's most beloved works, including selections from "Sunday in the Park," "Into the Woods," "A Little Night Music," "Assassins," "Sweeney Todd" and more.

Live From Lincoln Center "New Years Eve: Sondheim Celebration" airs on 3-2 Thursday, the 31st at 7:00 p.m.

Remember Pearl Harbor

Narrated by actor Tom Selleck, Remember Pearl Harbor chronicles the personal stories of veterans and citizens who witnessed the surprise attack by the Japanese on the American Pacific Fleet on December 7, 1941, launching the United States into World War II.

The film shows in detail the bombings on Oahu, along with the fiery explosion of the USS Arizona, the sinking of the USS Oklahoma, and the attacks on Hickam Field.

Remember Pearl Harbor airs on 3-2 Monday, the 7th at 8:00 p.m. See it on 3-1 Sunday, the 6th at 10:30 p.m.

The Portillo Expedition: Mystery at Bougainville Island

The Portillo Expedition follows a crew of American explorers to a remote Pacific island in the western Solomon Islands to locate the wreckage from the plane carrying infamous Japanese Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, the architect of the Pearl Harbor attack and the Battle of Midway.

Yamamoto's bomber was shot down by American P-38 fighter planes on April 18, 1943 in a top-secret mission accomplished by breaking the Japanese naval code. The assassination of Admiral Yamamoto changed the outcome of the war in the Pacific.

The Portillo Expedition will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 7th at 9:30 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Sunday, the 13th at 10:30 p.m.

LIFELINE:

Pearl Harbor's Unknown Hero

Lifeline: Pearl Harbor's Unknown Hero tells the story of how U.S. Navy sailor Joe George became an unlikely hero when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor in Hawaii.

On the day of the attack, George was on board the USS Vestal, which was moored alongside the burning and sinking USS Arizona. He could see that crewmen were trapped as fire raged on the Arizona's deck beneath them. Ignoring a direct order to cut the lines from the USS Vestal, the sailor made a crucial decision that saved lives.

But new scientific research into neuroplasticity is revealing how to combat this dire prognosis.

The Brain Revolution provides the most comprehensive and easy-to-follow plan for maximizing and protecting the brain for a life-time. Examples of people with transformational experiences and interviews with the scientists and experts who helped make it all possible offer engaging insights into this life-changing plan.

The Brain Revolution airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 1st at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, the 6th at 12:30 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Friday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Master Your Future

In Master Your Future, the goal of host Rajiv Nagaich is to change the way Americans think about, plan for, and navigate through retirement. Nagaich is an elder attorney and an expert on eldercare law, including trusts and estate planning.

With ten thousand people turning 65 every day, maybe you are one of those who are feeling the trifecta of retirement fears: fear of ending up in an institution, fear of becoming a burden, and fear of running out of money. These are the biggest retirement concerns and are even worse for families with small to medium size estates.

An effective retirement plan should be multi-disciplinary, involving coordinated plans for health, housing, legal and family issues, in addition to financial matters. Nagaich's multi-disciplinary approach to retirement planning has transformed the way millions of people think about, plan for and experience retirement.

Master Your Future airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 5th at 11:00 a.m. Watch it on 3-1 Wednesday, the 2nd at 8:30 p.m.

Joe Bonamassa: Royal Tea Live

Joe Bonamassa: Royal Tea Live is a new solo studio album inspired by his British guitar heroes Jeff Beck, John Mayall & The Bluesbreakers, Eric Clapton and Cream.

Bonamassa is known for taking risks and venturing into uncharted territory throughout his wide-ranging career, but now he has found a new way to surprise his fans and music lovers. Royal Tea brings Bonamassa full circle.

"This whole adventure," admits Joe, "was a bucket-list thing for me." This album reconnects the 43-year-old with the guitar-slinging kid from upstate New York, who stumbled across the best of British blues music in his dad's vinyl collection, whose influences have shaped him to be the player he is today. "I would have been about twelve years old, and it was the sound I heard in my head. Like, 'OK, I'm in. That's what I want to be."

Joe Bonamassa: Royal Tea Live can be seen on 3-2 Thursday, the 3rd at 7:00 p.m.
