When Whales Walked: Journeys in Deep Time

They are the most iconic animals on Earth—whales and birds of prey, ferocious crocodiles and magnificent elephants. To see them is to marvel and to ask a surprisingly challenging question: Where did these amazing creatures come from? When Whales Walked: Journeys in Deep Time takes us on a two-hour global adventure to find the answer.

Caudipteryx was a small feathered dinosaur that couldn't fly. Its fossils were a goldmine for those studying the evolution of birds.

Starting with awe-inspiring animals from Vancouver to Madagascar, we travel millions of years into the past to unravel their ancient stories. Each of these iconic creatures has an extraordinary lineage, a story full of twists and turns, punctuated by dramatic events in Earth's history.

Along the way, we'll meet an extraordinary cast of ancient characters, from tiny elephants 1/3 the size of a modern elephant to crocs that would dwarf any reptile alive today to a whale ancestor that walked on four legs.

When Whales Walked: Journeys in Deep Time airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 19th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 22nd at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Thursday, the 20th at 3:00 p.m., Saturday, the 22nd at 11:00 p.m. and Monday, the 24th at 7:00 p.m.

World War Speed

Secrets of the Dead "World War Speed"

seeks to understand how the use of amphetamines affected the course of World War II and unleashed "the world's first pharmacological arms race." Stories about drug use by Hitler and German forces during World War II have been widely told. What's less well known is that Allied commanders embraced pharmacological "force enhancers" as well.

By 1941, rumors about Nazi soldiers using a "super-drug" identified as the methamphetamine Pervitin were confirmed, and Allied commanders launched their own classified program to find the perfect war-fighting drug.

During the war, one in three Allied soldiers were incapacitated without a physical scratch on them. Modern weapons and warfare proved so terrifying that almost as many men were shredded by combat fatigue and shell shock—now known as Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)—as by bullets and shrapnel.

Allied commanders believed Benzedrine, an amphetamine similar to Pervitin, was the answer, hoping the amphetamine would defeat not just the need for sleep, but anxiety and fear among troops.

Secrets of the Dead "World War Speed" will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, the 26th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 30th at 10:00 a.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m.

Roll Red Roll

At a pre-season football party in a small Ohio town, a teenage girl is assaulted by members of the beloved high school football team. "Roll Red Roll" on P.O.V. goes behind the headlines of this case to uncover the deep-seated and social media-fueled "boys will be boys" culture at the root of high school sexual assault in America.

It was the disturbing social media that provoked the most powerful questions about the case, and about the collusion of teen bystanders, teachers, parents and coaches to protect the assailants and discredit the victim. The program asks unflinchingly: "why didn't anyone stop it?"

"Roll Red Roll" is a cautionary tale about what can happen when teen social media bullying runs rampant and adults look the other way.

P.O.V. "Roll Red Roll" will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 30th at 10:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 23rd at 9:00 p.m. Due to its content on sexual violence, this film is for mature audiences.

Bozeman Trail: A Rush to Montana's Gold

The Bozeman Trail was an offshoot of the Oregon Trail, a shortcut to the newly discovered gold fields of Montana Territory. Pioneered by John Bozeman and others in 1863, the Bozeman Trail cut through the heart of Indian country. It became a flash point for a clash of cultures that would explode into warfare, destruction and tragedy.

Set against the stunning background of the Rockies, the Bozeman Trail: A Rush to Montana's Gold tells a different story of U.S. western expansion and manifest destiny. One such story is that of a Native American Chief who maintained an honorable stance among dishonorable government officials and who won a rare victory, forcing the government to retreat.

In the end, the events that transpired during the years of the Bozeman Trail era changed this part of the American West forever.

Bozeman Trail: A Rush to Montana's Gold airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 23rd at 10:30 p.m. and Monday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 17th at 7:00 p.m.

Scramble the Seawolves

Scramble the Seawolves is the little-known story of the most decorated squadron in the Vietnam War and in naval aviation history—the Helicopter Attack Light Squadron Three Seawolves, known as HA(L)-3. The squadron was established in 1967 inside the Republic of Vietnam and strategically located throughout the Mekong Delta region. It was the US Navy's first and only dedicated attack helicopter gunship squadron.

The Seawolves were an all-volunteer squadron of almost 3,000 young men—maintainers, personnel, gunners and pilots. With hand-me-down hueys and the spirit of ingenuity and courage, they were the most effective and offensive Navy squadron, with 31 Silver Stars awarded, 5 Navy Crosses, 219 Distinguished Flying Crosses, 15,964 Air Medals, and countless other medals.

Scramble the Seawolves airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 11th at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 14th at 10:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 12th at 7:00 p.m.

Terrence McNally: Every Act of Life

"Terrence McNally: Every Act of Life" on American Masters lifts the curtain on the life and career of the complicated and brilliant playwright, librettist, scriptwriter, outspoken LGBTQ activist and Emmy- and four-time Tony Award-winning writer.

Over the course of his six-decade career, McNally has written trailblazing plays, musicals, operas and screenplays, including "The Ritz" (1975), "Kiss of the Spider Woman" (1992), "Ragtime" (1996), "Dead Man Walking" (2000), "The Full Monty" (2000) and "Mothers and Sons" (2014).

From his troubled beginnings, including abusive alcoholic parents and growing up as a gay teen in a conservative Texas town, to his college years in New York City, from traveling the world as the tutor to John Steinbeck's children to having his first Broadway play, "And Things That Go Bump in the Night," flop at age 24, American Masters traces McNally's personal and professional successes, struggles and failures.

"Terrence McNally: Every Act of Life" on American Masters airs on 3-2 Friday, the 14th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 15th at 7:00 p.m.

Robert Shaw – Man of Many Voices

"Robert Shaw – Man of Many Voices" on American Masters traces the journey of one of the greatest choral music conductors in the world. With no formal training, Shaw achieved early success in popular music and later became legendary for his interpretations of classical music's choral masterpieces. He inspired generations of musicians with the power of music.

"Robert Shaw – Man of Many Voices" airs on 3-2 Friday, the 21st at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 22nd at 7:00 p.m.

The Lavender Scare

The Lavender Scare is the first documentary film to tell the little-known story of an unrelenting campaign by the federal government to identify and fire all employees suspected of being homosexual.

With the United States gripped in the panic of the 1950s Cold War, President Dwight D. Eisenhower declared gay men and lesbians to be a threat to the security of the country and therefore unfit for government service. His vow to purge all gay men and lesbians from the federal workforce triggered the longest witch hunt in American history.

Over the next four decades, tens of thousands of government workers would lose their jobs or be denied employment for no reason other than their sexual orientation. But the mass firings stir outrage in the gay community and thrust an unlikely hero into the forefront of what would become the LGBTQ rights movement.

Narrated by Glenn Close, this film is a chilling reminder of how easy it can be to trample the rights of an entire class of people in the name of patriotism and national security.

The Lavender Scare airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 18th at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 28th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 18th at 7:00 p.m.

MASTERPIECE

Endeavour, Season 6

Shaun Evans sports a new look as DS Endeavour Morse in season 6 of the detective drama "Endeavour" on Masterpiece.

The latest installment is set in 1969, and Morse is facing new challenges, having started a new role as a uniformed officer at the Woodstock police department, while embracing the fashion of the period by growing a moustache.

Following the dissolution of the Oxford City Police and the merging with Thames Valley Constabulary at the end of the last series, the new season picks up with the team dispersed as they find their feet in their various new roles. The tragic murder of DC George Fancy remains unsolved.

Masterpiece "Endeavour" airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 16th and repeats Fridays at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 16th and Mondays at 1:00 p.m. beginning the 17th.

Seize and Secure: The Battle for La Fièvre

Seize and Secure: The Battle for La Fièvre sheds light on a relatively unknown, but pivotal battle to secure a critical route inland for allied forces invading France on June 6, 1944. The fight for the La Fièvre causeway and bridge is regarded as one of the bloodiest small arms battles in U.S. military history.

The battle for La Fièvre was fought for a small, stone river bridge, largely by paratroopers and glidermen from the 82nd Airborne Division who dropped, in advance, behind enemy lines and laid the groundwork for victory. Without control of the bridge and its vital causeway, American forces coming from Utah Beach would not have been able to come ashore in Normandy.

Seize and Secure relies on the veterans who fought in the battle to retell the harrowing story. Mark Harmon (NCIS, The West Wing, Chicago Hope) is the narrator.

Seize and Secure: The Battle for La Fièvre airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 30th at 9:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 10th at 8:00 p.m.

Rivers of Life Nile, Amazon & Mississippi

Experience the extraordinary animals, epic landscapes and remarkable people who live alongside three iconic rivers—the Nile, the Amazon and the Mississippi—in this landmark three-part series.

The Nile is the world's longest river. From elephants and leopards to extreme kayakers and ancient wonders, its great length provides a lifeline for some of the world's most incredible cultures.

The Amazon, the greatest river system on Earth, amasses one-fifth of Earth's freshwater as it flows east from the Andes to the Atlantic. Boiling streams, crystal clear lagoons and pink river dolphins are some of its many secret and extreme worlds.

The fingers of the Mississippi stretch into nearly half of the USA, from frozen waterfalls and coyotes fishing in the far north, through lakes crammed with tens of thousands of pelicans, to time-travelling grain barges and steamy southern swamps where alligators rule—the many faces of one river which unite an incredible nation.

Rivers of Life airs on 3-2 Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 19th and Saturdays at 11:00 p.m. beginning the 29th. On 3-1, the series airs Wednesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 19th (check AtoZ on page 19 for more 3-1 listings).

A New Leash on Life: The K9s For Warriors Story

A New Leash on Life: The K9s For Warriors Story focuses on the impact of service-dog agency “K9s For Warriors” on the lives of American veterans struggling with PTSD.

When Brett Simon (shown) returned home from two tours in Iraq in 2010, he struggled with PTSD and a traumatic brain injury. His wartime experience training bomb-sniffing dogs inspired Brett and his mother to cofound “K-9s For Warriors,” an organization that trains rescued dogs as companion animals for American veterans.

“K9s For Warriors”

graduates 10 to 12 veteran-dog pairs per month from an intensive process of training and bonding. For each veteran it helps, the organization rescues a dog from a shelter. So far, the organization has helped over 400 veterans and 800 dogs to find new hope in their futures.

The documentary tells the story of three veterans and their companion dogs as they re-adjust to civilian daily life, learning to manage issues such as flashbacks, hypervigilance and invisible psychological damage.

A New Leash on Life: The K9s For Warriors Story airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 12th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 23rd at 11:00 a.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m.

Taped during the final performance of their sold out tour, the threesome delivers rousing performances of their greatest hits: Ray Price's "San Antonio Rose," "Make The World Go Away" and "For the Good Times"; Merle Haggard's "Take Me Back to Tulsa," "Sing Me Back Home" and "Mama Tried"; and Willie Nelson's "On the Road Again," "Always on My Mind" and "Whiskey River."

Roadmap to Happiness

Why do people seek happiness? Studies reveal that happier people are healthier, live longer, are more active in their communities and are more successful. Everyone wants to be happy, but where do we start?

In Roadmap to Happiness, New York Times best-selling author Gretchen Rubin explains how small steps, taken consistently, can add up to greater contentment. But this doesn't just happen, it takes an understanding of the type of person you are.

Rubin suggests that people's personality types fit into Four Tendencies—Upholders, Questioners, Obligers and Rebels—and that these tendencies shape every aspect of our behavior. Rubin explains that knowing your personality type allows you to incorporate the happiness-boosting habits that will work best for you.

Roadmap to Happiness includes simple practices that you can begin immediately and when done regularly, they create an invisible architecture of daily life that can make us happier, healthier, more productive and more creative.

Roadmap to Happiness will be broadcast on 3-2 Saturday, the 1st at 2:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 4th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 2nd at 2:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 8th at 3:00 p.m.

Law and Addiction

In Law and Addiction, prominent attorney and author Mike Papantonio pulls back the curtain on America's deadly opioid epidemic in his recent thriller of the same name. It is a story about greed, corruption and the power of personal conviction.

Papantonio uses fiction to entertain and inform his readers about some of the most pressing issues of our time. In each of his thrillers, from Law And Disorder to Law And Vengeance and now Law And Addiction, he lays bare the conspiracies and white-collar crimes that hurt ordinary Americans—and that are rarely covered by the national media. He has aggressively taken on Big Pharma, tobacco, weapons manufacturers and the automobile industry.

Join Papantonio as he discusses his unique experiences as a lawyer and a crusader, and get insight into Law and Addiction. His latest fictional novel is set in a small town in West Virginia. The town has been ravaged by an epidemic insidiously planned and carried out by one of America's most powerful pharmaceutical companies.

Law and Addiction can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 2nd at 11:00 a.m. and Tuesday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 3rd at 9:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 8th at 2:00 p.m.

PBS Previews: Chasing the Moon

PBS Previews: Chasing the Moon offers a behind-the-scenes look at the making of the highly-anticipated American Experience documentary about the space race, from its earliest beginnings to the monumental achievement of the first lunar landing in 1969 and beyond.

Scheduled to air in July on PBS in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 moon landing, "Chasing the Moon" from American Experience thoroughly reimagines the race to the moon for a new generation, upending much of the conventional mythology surrounding the effort.

"Chasing the Moon" tells a vastly more entertaining and surprising story than other documentaries. As the film reveals, the drive to land a man on the moon was fueled as much by politics as it was by technology and was a very controversial undertaking.

PBS Previews: Chasing the Moon airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 5th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, this PBS preview of the upcoming series on American Experience airs Tuesday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Filmed in Budapest, Hungary, the period drama JAMESTOWN returns with eight new episodes for its third and final season.
