The Celiac Project

- Celiac is a disease that has more than 300 symptoms.
- It is estimated that 1 in 133 Americans has celiac disease.
- 83% of individuals with celiac disease are either undiagnosed or misdiagnosed.
- The average CD victim spends six to ten years going from doctor to doctor before being diagnosed.

The Celiac Project is a documentary about life before and after the diagnosis of celiac disease. When filmmaker Michael Frolichstein was finally diagnosed at age 40 with a simple blood test after years of dismissive doctors, he set out to separate fact from fiction about the gluten-free diet.

Celiac disease can strike at any age among those with a genetic disposition for developing it. In the U.S., it's thought that roughly 2.5 million people are living with it but remain undiagnosed. Symptoms are wide-ranging and numerous. In addition to stomach problems like chronic diarrhea and abdominal pain, signs of the disease might include delayed puberty, weight loss, skin rashes, brain fog, migraines, fatigue, joint pain and, with young children, failure to thrive. Women with CD suffer more than their share of miscarriages and more often have babies prematurely.

It's not uncommon for people to be misdiagnosed with irritable bowel syndrome and rheumatoid arthritis, among other things. One person in the film was told she had multiple sclerosis for a decade before she was finally diagnosed with CD.

When someone with CD ingests gluten—even a very small amount—the body's immune system attacks the lining of the small intestine, destroying the fingerlike villi that absorb nutrients from food. Normally, the lining of this organ that connects the stomach and the large intestine looks like shag carpet, with the villi processing food as it travels the gastrointestinal tract. If you have CD, the villi may look more flat. Without healthy villi, people can become malnourished, regardless of how much food they eat.

The Celiac Project airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 29th at 10:00 a.m. and Tuesday, the 31st at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1 it airs Saturday, the 28th at 9:00 p.m., Monday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 31st at 8:00 a.m.

Gluten—a protein in wheat, rye, barley and some oats—can spark serious health problems in people with celiac disease.

Niall Ferguson's Networld

Niall Ferguson's Networld, a three-part series, visits network theorists, social scientists and data analysts to explore the history of social networks. From the Reformation and 17th century witch-hunting, through the American Revolution and to the nightmare visions of Orwell's 1984, Ferguson demonstrates how human behavior, disruptive technology and profit can energize ideas and communication, ultimately changing the world.

In "Disruption," episode one, Ferguson focuses on the great network revolution of our time and one that happened 500 years ago—the Protestant Reformation. He untangles important issues including why social media networks polarize us, why some ideas go viral and why truth itself is at a disadvantage.

"Winner Takes All" looks at lessons from Cold War history, Fritz Lang's Metropolis, and George Orwell's 1984, to tell the story of how a decentralized, not-for-profit worldwide web shape-shifted to become a highly profitable network controlled by a tiny elite selling our attention for billions of dollars to the world's advertisers.

Then, using lessons from the fight against terrorism in Iraq, Russian attempts to divide Americans through social media, and the rise of an Internet-powered surveillance state in China, "Networld War" focuses on how our democracies are under threat from forces that exploit and weaponize the social networks that we invented.

Niall Ferguson is a Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution,

Stanford University, and a senior faculty fellow for Science and International Affairs at Harvard. He is the author of fifteen books, including The Square and the Tower, a New York Times bestseller and the basis for this series.

Niall Ferguson's Networld airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 17th, 7:00 p.m.–10:00 p.m.; Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 22nd, and Fridays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 27th. Watch it on 3-1 Wednesday, the 18th, 7:00 p.m.–10:00 p.m.

Niall Ferguson (at right) is shown with Eric Schmidt, best known as chief executive of Google, with an estimated worth of 14.7 billion.

The Freemasons were a highly influential social network that helped to turn the tide of the American Revolution. Benjamin Franklin, George Washington and Paul Revere were among its membership.

Garth Brooks: The Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song

This March, The Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song salutes country music icon Garth Brooks. The special features an all-star tribute to Brooks from friends and admirers. The titan of country music is the youngest recipient of this prestigious prize.

Brooks is one of the major changemakers in the history of country music. His music weaves the beauty of poetry, the universality of the human experience and the inclusiveness of other musical genres, making him one of the most influential performers in country music today.

Brooks has built a loyal fan base, not only through his music but also his charity work.

Garth Brooks: The Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 29th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m.

A History of Christianity

A History of Christianity is a six-part series presented by Diarmaid MacCulloch, one of the world's leading historians and Professor of History of the Church at St. Cross College Oxford. His books about the Reformation have been acclaimed as masterpieces.

A History of Christianity delves into what it means to be a Christian. Intelligent, thought-provoking and masterful in scope, the series uncovers how a small Jewish sect that preached humility became the biggest religion in the world.

MacCulloch describes Christianity's main ideas and personalities, its organization and spirituality, as well as how it has changed politics, sex and human society. The series ranges from Palestine in the first century to India in the third, from Damascus to China in the seventh century and from San Francisco to Korea in the 20th.

The six-part series A History of Christianity will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 1:00 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. beginning March 1st (two 90 minutes episodes back-to-back each Sunday for 3 weeks).

While living in this time of plenty, we suffer from catastrophic rates of chronic diseases, anxiety, depression and loneliness—issues that are exacerbated by chronic stress, sleep deficits and inflammation. Research shows that these modern-day stressors appear to change neural structures and brain activation networks.

Dr. Perlmutter’s preventive approach to brain health focuses on the role of lifestyle changes. In Brain Wash, he reveals the mental hijacking that undermines each and every one of us, and presents the tools necessary to think more clearly, make better decisions and develop healthier habits.

With an empowering 10-day program, including a meal plan and 40 delicious recipes, Brain Wash is the key to cultivating a healthy, vibrant and meaningful life.

Brain Wash airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 3rd at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday, the 7th at 3:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 1st at 11:30 a.m. and Sunday, the 8th at 2:00 p.m.

In July of 1989, Pink Floyd performed in the romantic setting of Venice in a concert that became known as a “Night of Wonders.” Framed by the city’s famous twin columns—St. Mark the Evangelist and St. Theodore of Amasea—Pink Floyd: Live in Venice performed from a floating platform in the middle of the Venetian lagoon.

The setlist mixed in songs from the band’s “Momentary Lapse of Reason” album with classic Pink Floyd concert staples, including “Time,” “The Great Gig in the Sky,” “Wish You Were Here” and others.

Pink Floyd: Live in Venice airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 4th at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday the 14th at 8:30 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Saturday, the 7th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 10th at 8:30 p.m.

Jonathan Antoine in Concert: Going the Distance airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 11th at 8:30 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 1st at 8:30 p.m.

Food Fix with Mark Hyman

Food Fix with Mark Hyman shows us how our most powerful tool to reverse the global epidemic of chronic disease, heal the environment, reform politics, address social injustice and revive economies is food. What we eat has tremendous implications not just for our waistlines, but also for the planet, society and the global economy.

Dr. Hyman explains how our food and agriculture policies are corrupted by money and lobbyists that drive our biggest global crises: the spread of obesity and food-related chronic disease, climate change, poverty, violence, educational achievement gaps and more.

Food Fix airs on 3-2 Friday, the 6th at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, the 15th at 11:30 a.m. It airs on 3-1 Saturday, the 7th at 3:00 p.m.

Celtic Thunder Ireland

Celtic Thunder Ireland is a revue show that combines 10 years of Celtic Thunder hits and focuses on their most popular songs of the last decade, their Irish and Celtic fan favorites. Memorable moments include their unique take on beloved Irish classics “Danny Boy” and “She Moved Through The Fair,” their inspiring anthems of “Ireland’s Call” and “My Land” and their upbeat numbers such as “Star of the County Down” and “Seven Drunken Nights.”

Call the Midwife Season 9 Premier

After a magical Christmas experience in the Hebrides, season 9 of Call the Midwife sees a return to the harsher reality of city life.

Opening with the funeral of Winston Churchill in January 1965, the season continues as a new East End rises from the ashes of the old. Our familiar team of medics and midwives face unexpected challenges as the population shifts, rules change and old diseases come back to haunt them.

Alongside the joy of birth, they must cope with cases including diphtheria, drug abuse, cancer, tuberculosis and fistula. Meanwhile, their own experiences are fuelled by love, loss and doubt.

Call the Midwife has been renewed for Seasons 10 and 11, taking it into 2022.

Call the Midwife airs on 3-2 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 29th. On 3-1, it airs Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 29th and Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. beginning the 31st.

The Restorers Historical Aviation Series

From B-25s to a Bleriot XI and from the Doolittle Raiders to the WASP, The Restorers offers a glimpse into the world of historic aircraft restoration. With striking aerial footage, the five-part series brings the stories of warbird and vintage planes to life, and showcases the passion and dedication of the veterans, technicians, historians and enthusiasts working to ensure that antique planes are not confined to the static chapters of a text book. Each one-hour episode is themed, containing several stories within each episode.

The Restorers airs on 3-2 Sundays at 12:30 p.m. beginning the 22nd. On 3-1, it airs Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 25th and Tuesdays at 7:00 a.m. beginning the 31st.

The RULE

It's almost 1500 years old.

In 530 A.D., the Rule of Saint Benedict was written as a basic "common sense" guide to foster community in a monastery. The Rule documentary captures how one monastery called Newark Abbey, in the heart of one of America's most impoverished and violent cities, applies the precepts of this nearly 1500 year-old handbook to its school, St. Benedict's Prep.

The Rule, a 90-minute documentary, tells a rare story of success. In Newark, New Jersey, where the average high school graduation rate is abysmal, St. Benedict's Prep is the exception, with a near 100 percent college acceptance rate. Filmmakers profile the school and the Benedictine monks of Newark Abbey to see how they achieve success among a vulnerable population of inner-city African-American and Latino teenage boys.

Interviews with the monks, scholars, counselors, teachers, and students of St. Benedict's Prep reveal why these kids succeed.

The Rule can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 13th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 22nd at 9:00 p.m.

Women's History Month

Summoned: Frances Perkins and the General Welfare

Summoned: Frances Perkins and the General Welfare is the story of the first woman appointed to a U.S. Presidential cabinet.

In 1911, while visiting a friend in New York City, 31 year-old Perkins witnessed 147 workers, many of them young women, jumping to their deaths from 11th story windows in the infamous Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire. After this tragedy, Perkins dedicated her life to industrial reform.

In her 12 years as Labor Secretary under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Perkins provided the social safety net that continues to shape the lives of Americans today. During her tenure, she created the Social Security program, a federal minimum wage, the 40-hour work week, unemployment compensation and ended the legal use of child labor.

In the words of Lawrence O'Donnell, "There is no contribution that a cabinet member has made in the history of this country that has had the lasting kind of effect on all of us and the way we live than what Frances Perkins did."

Summoned: Frances Perkins and the General Welfare airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 3rd at 10:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 22nd at 10:00 a.m. Watch it on 3-1 Monday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 24th at 8:00 a.m.

Frances Perkins (shown) was the driving force behind Social Security, signed into law in 1935.

Enemy of the Reich: The Noor Inayat Khan Story Princess, Author, Spy

Enemy of the Reich: The Noor Inayat Khan Story brings to life the story of a woman's extraordinary courage, tested in the crucible of Nazi-occupied Paris.

With an American mother (Ora Ray Baker from Albuquerque) and an Indian Muslim father, Khan was an unusual British agent. Growing up in a Sufi center of learning in Paris seemed an unlikely preparation for the dangerous work ahead. Yet it was in this place of universal peace that her remarkable courage was forged.

When the Nazi's invaded France, Khan was recruited as a spy, going to Paris to support the French Underground. After the arrest of her entire network, Khan became the only surviving radio operator linking the British to the French Resistance in Paris, coordinating the airdrop of weapons, explosives and supporting agents and the rescue of downed Allied fliers.

Betrayed by a French collaborator after four months, Khan resisted brutal interrogation and torture by the Gestapo. She never gave up any information, not even her real name. She was executed in Dachau in 1944 (age 30).

Enemy of the Reich: The Noor Inayat Khan Story airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 17th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 19th at 7:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Monday, the 23rd at 8:00 p.m.
