Dead Sea Scroll Detectives

The Dead Sea Scrolls are one of the greatest archeological finds of all time. First discovered in a cave by a Bedouin shepherd boy in 1947, these fragile parchment relics were written around the time of Christ two millennia ago and include the oldest known versions of the Hebrew Bible.

The scrolls not only reveal that early Judaism was far richer and more varied than previously thought, but also hold vital clues to the birth of Christianity. But who compiled them and do more scrolls await discovery?

While certain scrolls have survived intact, others have been ravaged by time and remain an enigma.

Now, scientists are using new technologies to read the unreadable and solve mysteries that have endured for millennia. Discover where science and scripture converge, on Nova's "Dead Sea Scroll Detectives."

Watch "Dead Sea Scroll Detectives" on 3-2 Wednesday, the 6th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 9th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Thursday, the 7th at 4:00 p.m., Friday, the 8th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, the 9th at 11:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 10th at 4:00 p.m.

Decoding da Vinci

How was Leonardo da Vinci able to think so far "outside the box" that he envisaged developments in engineering, astronomy and anatomy that were only realized centuries later? The list of Leonardo's "firsts" is astonishing: he asserted that "the sun does not move" more than a generation before Copernicus; he reasoned that fatty deposits in narrowed arteries were caused by an unhealthy diet; he drew the first designs for a parachute, armored car, machine gun, diving suit, helicopter and a flying machine that anticipates the modern hang glider.

Leonardo's inventions and insights have come down to us through his notebooks, each page packed with a profusion of ingenious ideas and breathtaking drawings but revealing little about his personal life or character. As a result, the man behind the Mona Lisa and a host of futuristic inventions remains a shadowy figure.

Now, "Decoding da Vinci" on Nova takes viewers on a journey to Italy to explore the impact of Leonardo's art on his science and his science on his art. It is a compelling portrait of the original "Renaissance man."

"Decoding da Vinci" on Nova can be seen on 3-2 Wednesday, the 13th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 16th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Thursday, the 14th at 4:00 p.m., Friday, the 15th at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, the 16th at 11:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 17th at 4:00 p.m.

The Violence Paradox

From suicide bombings to mass shootings, the daily news is enough to convince us that we live in the most violent of times. The last century has seen two world wars and the slaughter of millions by pitiless tyrants, not to mention countless civil wars, insurgencies and terrorist attacks. For most of us, the proposition that the last century has been the most violent era is irresistible.

But according to best-selling author and polymath Steven Pinker, none of this is true. In fact, Pinker argues that we're living in the most peaceful era in our species' existence. The decline hasn't been smooth, but it is an unmistakable development, visible from the family to the neighborhood, between tribes and other armed factions, and among major nations and states.

"The Violence Paradox," a surprising two-hour Nova, takes viewers on a world tour through history and the human mind, revealing how and why rates of violence have diminished steadily and dramatically since the dawn of civilization. The film also explores how we might create a more peaceful world.

"The Violence Paradox" on Nova will be broadcast on 3-2 Wednesday, the 20th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 23rd at 10:00 p.m. It can be seen on 3-1 Friday, the 22nd at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 23rd at 11:00 p.m.

The Portillo Expedition: Mystery of Bougainville Island examines the circumstances surrounding the death of Isoroku Yamamoto, the famed Japanese WWII Admiral who planned the December 7, 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor and the June 1942 Battle at Midway. Admiral Yamamoto's bomber, the Betty Bomber, was shot down by American P-38 fighter planes on April 18, 1943, a top-secret mission accomplished by breaking the Japanese naval code.

Narrated by Gary Sinise, the documentary follows a crew of American explorers to the remote jungle of the western Solomon Islands, where they search for the wreck of the Betty Bomber—sparking a further quest to understand what they find there.

While on the Pacific island of Bougainville, also the site in late 1943 of one of World War II's most horrific battles, expedition leader Andy Giles made an incredible discovery in the oozing mud at the site of Yamamoto's plane wreckage: a gold tooth. Could it be Admiral Yamamoto's gold crown, discovered after more than seven decades?

The discovery of the gold tooth could alter the narrative and myth of the condition of Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto's body when it was located. The Japanese claim the admiral's body was discovered in a pristine state, wearing white gloves and holding his sword.

Join the Portillo expedition on their incredible search for answers that took them from Bougainville, back to the United States and then eventually to Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto's home city of Nagaoka, Japan, where they met with Yamamoto's grandson.

Watch The Portillo Expedition: Mystery of Bougainville Island on 3-2 Sunday, the 3rd at 12:00 noon and Sunday, the 10th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Durrell Family, 1951

What the Durrells Did Next

For three seasons, Masterpiece audiences have been charmed by “The Durrells in Corfu,” the story of a quirky family who decamps from dreary England to a sun-dappled Greek island. In the fourth and final season, the Durrells’ idyllic island life was cut short by the outbreak of World War II—but is that really where the story ends?

Viewers find out in “What the Durrells Did Next,” a one-hour Masterpiece special that tells the definitive true story behind one of the best-loved families in TV drama.

Lifting the lid on every family secret, heartbreak and triumph, it reveals how Corfu shaped the personalities and ambitions of each family member. It’s an outlandish story of African expeditions, global fame, heartbreak and the establishment of a zoo dedicated to saving endangered species.

The film describes how young Gerry Durrell grew up to be a world-famous zoologist whose ideas on conservation revolutionized the roles of zoos forever, how Larry Durrell nearly won the Nobel Prize for literature—but was deemed to have too much sex in his books—and how flirtatious Margo stayed forever young on cruise ships across the world.

“What the Durrells Did Next” on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 10th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 17th at 11:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 10th at 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 12th at 1:00 p.m.

MASTERPIECE

The Chaperone

The star, writer and director of the series and film “Downton Abbey” reunite in “The Chaperone,” based on Laura Moriarty’s best-selling novel and featuring actress Elizabeth McGovern. Portraying a Jazz-age quest for personal fulfillment by two markedly different women, the captivating 90-minute drama premieres on Masterpiece.

McGovern stars as Norma Carlisle, the diffident chaperone to fellow Kansan, Louise Brooks, destined to become a 1920s sex symbol, played by co-star Haley Lu Richardson.

Telling the fictionalized backstory of real-life silent-screen star Louise Brooks, “The Chaperone” begins in 1922, when Brooks is a teenage modern-dance sensation in her hometown, Wichita, Kansas. Winning a place at the renowned Denishawn Dance Company in New York City, Louise requires a chaperone for her journey from staid Middle America to the Gatsby-like glory of the big city.

Enter a family friend, Norma, who has her own reasons to sign on as Louise’s minder. In many ways, she is less worldly wise than her fifteen-year-old ward.

Once in New York, Louise pursues dance by day and forbidden pleasures by night, while the chaperone embarks on a personal mission: discovering exactly who she is. Years before, Norma was raised by nuns in a New York orphanage, then placed on a notorious “orphan train,” where she eventually landed with a farm couple in Kansas.

Louise will go on to become an icon of the Roaring Twenties and a rebellious model for her generation, while Norma, too, will embrace rebellion—and in Wichita, Kansas, no less!

“The Chaperone” on Masterpiece can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 24th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 24th at 6:00 p.m. and Monday, the 25th at 1:00 p.m.

Cities of Light:

The Rise and Fall of Islamic Spain

Over a thousand years ago, Europe experienced one of its greatest periods of cultural enlightenment. For more than three centuries in Medieval Spain, Muslims, Jews and Christians lived together and prospered in a thriving multicultural civilization. Here, remarkable individuals of different faiths made lasting contributions in such areas as poetry, art, architecture, music, dining etiquette, science, agriculture, medicine, engineering, navigation, textiles and even hydraulic technology.

Their rich, complex culture reached a high point in the Mediterranean Middle Ages, but larger forces in conquest of land and power brought about puritanical judgments, absolutism and religious extremism. The conflict they triggered extinguished the shared learning that once flourished in this enlightened land.

Cities of Light: The Rise and Fall of Islamic Spain is a story of epic sweep. The two-hour historical documentary brings to life the 700 year-long history of Muslim Spain. It tells of the triumphs and shortcomings, achievements and ultimate failures of a centuries-long period when Muslims, Christians and Jews built a society that lit the Dark Ages, but that was ultimately destroyed by greed, fear and intolerance.

Cities of Light: The Rise and Fall of Islamic Spain airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 21st at 7:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Monday, the 18th at 7:00 p.m.

FRONTLINE

In the Age of AI

“In the Age of AI,” a two-hour special on Frontline, addresses the promise and perils of Artificial Intelligence—from fears about work and privacy to rivalry between the United States and China. This new industrial revolution will reshape and disrupt our lives, our jobs and our world, and allow the emergence of the surveillance society.

(3-2) Tuesday, 5th, 8:00 p.m.; Thursday 7th, 7:00 p.m.
(3-1) Friday, 8th, 9:00 p.m.

Kids Caught in the Crackdown

Frontline exposes the traumatic stories of migrant children detained under Trump’s immigration policies. An investigation with The Associated Press delves into the widespread consequences—and business—of the mass confinement of migrant children.

(3-2) Tuesday, 12th, 10:00 p.m.; Thursday 14th, 7:00 p.m.
(3-1) Friday, 15th, 9:00 p.m.

At right, Minnesota National Guard sergeant Paul Braun has worked tirelessly to obtain a Special Immigrant Visa (SIV) for his best friend, Phillip Morris (nickname), who served in Iraq alongside of him and whose family has come under threat.

The Interpreters

During the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, more than 50,000 local interpreters helped protect U.S. military forces on the ground, enabling them to communicate with the local population. But those who took the job were often considered traitors. In the aftermath, some have been able to leave their home countries and reach safety, while others are still in hiding and fear for their lives.

Filmed over the course of two years, “The Interpreters” on Independent Lens follows three of these men, each of whom faces an impossible dilemma: remain in place and wait for paperwork that may never arrive or attempt a hazardous exit route to Europe. As the years go by, hope dwindles for the thousands of interpreters still seeking the protection they were promised for their sacrifice.

“The Interpreters” on Independent Lens airs on 3-2 Monday, the 11th at 9:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m.

Conscience Point

“Conscience Point” on Independent Lens reveals how long-simmering tensions come to a head in the summer of 2018, when the U.S. Open golf tournament unfolds at the ultra-exclusive Shinnecock Hills Golf Club. As thousands descend, Rebecca Hill-Genia, a Shinnecock activist, wants the throngs of visitors to understand one thing: the world-renowned golf course’s celebrated slopes and sand traps were literally carved out of a sacred Shinnecock burial ground.

Southampton is actually home to a surprisingly diverse group of residents, with some of the highest income disparities in the U.S. “Here we sit in the middle of Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous, yet sixty percent of people in our community are below the poverty level,” said Shinnecock Tribal Trustee Lance Gumbs.

Some feel that Conscience Point, the spot where the Shinnecock first met European settlers, is aptly named as we witness how the choices made by the one percent of the one percent impact all the people who once called this lovely peninsula their home.

Independent Lens “Conscience Point” airs on 3-2 Monday, the 18th at 9:30 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Sunday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m.

American Masters

N. Scott Momaday: Words from a Bear

“N. Scott Momaday: Words from a Bear” on American Masters examines the enigmatic life and mind of Pulitzer Prize-winning writer Navarro Scott Momaday, one of Native America’s most celebrated authors of poetry and prose. The film visually captures the essence of Momaday’s writings, relating each written line to his unique American experience representing ancestry, place and oral history.

This story takes audiences on a spiritual journey through the expansive landscapes of the West, when Momaday’s Kiowa ancestors roamed the Great Plains with herds of buffalo, to the sand-painted valleys of Jemez Pueblo, New Mexico where his imagination ripened and he showed superior writing skills as a young mission student.

“Words from a Bear” gives a thorough survey of Momaday’s most prolific years as a doctorate fellow at Stanford University, his achievement of the Pulitzer Prize for Literature in 1969, and his later works that solidified his place as the founding member of the “Native American Renaissance” in art and literature, influencing a generation of Native American artists, scholars and political activists.

The film reveals intimate details of the writer’s personal life through his literary texts, along with the trials and tribulations he faced as a Native American artist in the 20th and 21st century.

“N. Scott Momaday: Words from a Bear” on American Masters will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 18th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 24th at 10:00 a.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Wednesday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m.

Return to Rainy Mountain

In Return to Rainy Mountain, N. Scott Momaday, recipient of the first Pulitzer Prize for Fiction awarded to a Native American writer, and his daughter, filmmaker Jill Momaday Gray, take viewers on a modern-day road trip. The half-hour adventure is loosely based on his Kiowa nation’s ancestral myths and legends from his bestselling book, The Way to Rainy Mountain.

Return to Rainy Mountain airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 24th at 11:30 a.m. and Friday, the 29th at 11:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 20th at 8:30 p.m.

The Warrior Tradition

Why would Native American men and women put their lives on the line for the very government that, at various times, tried to exterminate or assimilate them, destroy their culture and take their homeland? Yet Native Americans serve in the highest percentages of any race or ethnicity relative to their numbers in the United States Military.

During World War I, not all Native Americans were even citizens of the United States and couldn’t be drafted, yet more than 12,000 Indian men volunteered. Even in Vietnam, an unpopular war, 90 percent of the 42,000 Native people who served were volunteers.

Premiering on Veteran’s Day during Native American Heritage Month, The Warrior Tradition

tells the astonishing, heartbreaking, inspiring and largely untold story of Native Americans in the United States Military from their own points of view—stories of service and pain, of courage and fear. They each have their own reasons for having served and for how the warrior tradition played a role in their lives.

The Warrior Tradition can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 11th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m.

The half-hour program explores The Wall’s continuing psychological impact on its many visitors, as well as those most affected by the Vietnam War through deeply stirring recollections of veterans, Gold Star families and founders of The Wall.

The American Road to Victory trilogy is a series of engaging battlefield tours that bring viewers into the action of World War II. These three unique hour-long films follow GI’s to the actual locations of the blood-soaked battlefields of D-Day through Hell’s Highway in Holland to the frozen Ardennes forests of the Battle of the Bulge.

Exact locations, special effects, daring re-enactments, period weapons and uniforms, and often unseen archival footage are artfully woven with chilling and powerful testimony from veterans.

College Behind Bars

College Behind Bars, a four-part documentary film, executive produced by Ken Burns, tells the story of a small group of incarcerated men and women struggling to earn college degrees and turn their lives around in one of the most rigorous and effective prison education programs in the United States—the Bard Prison Initiative.

Shot over four years in maximum and medium security prisons in New York State, the film takes viewers on a stark and intimate journey into one of the most pressing issues of our time—our failure to provide meaningful rehabilitation for the over two million Americans living behind bars.

Through the personal stories of the students and their families, the film reveals the transformative power of higher education and puts a human face on America’s criminal justice crisis. It raises questions we urgently need to address, including: What is prison for? Who has access to educational opportunity?

College Behind Bars airs on 3-2 Monday & Tuesday, 25th & 26th at 8:00 p.m. (2 two-hour episodes each night). On 3-1, it airs the same nights but begins at 7:00 p.m.
